Rowell finished 350 miles a few minutes before noon. Hazael passed Merritt at 12:6 o'clock, taking the second place. Between six this morning and noon Hazael covered 31 miles and three laps. Rowell did not relish the looks of things, and now runs at a rapid gait frequently. He has abandoned the dog trot and perspires freely.

HAD BEEN IN THE BOWERY.

Useful Knowledge of a Counselor Concerning Life in the Bowery.

New York Star.

Edward Tollsum of number sixteen, avenue A. spent part of Saturday night in the Bowery, and about 1 o'clock he walked through Essex street, and stopped a moment in front of the Harmony Rooms, where a ball was in progress. Then he thought that he had been robbed. He caused the arrest of William Jackson of 79 King street, who had stood for a short time at the door of the hall. In the Essex Market Court Counseller Hathway questioned Tollsum as to how he had spent the evening. He said he had been in the Bowery Garden from 8 o'clock to 12, and was on his way home when he was robbed.

"How many drinks have you had in that time?"

"Two," answered the complainant.

"That is strange; I am a little incredulous."

"Oh, no, there is nothing strange in that; he might have had only one glass," suggested Justice Duffy.

"You don't seem to be acquainted with the ways of a Bowery beer garden," said the Counselor. "He must have taken more than 2 glasses, for if he did not, he would have been told to change his seat, go up nearer to the orchestra, take a look at the evening papers or take a walk round the block; for Saturday night is a very busy time, and customers move often or drink much." Upon this eloquent explanation Jackson was discharged.

The State Fair Trick.

Detroit Free Press.

Soon after breakfast, yesterday morning, a negro who was crossing the Campus Martius was halted by a run-down white man with a bad kink in his left eye, and asked if he intended to visit the State Fair durlng the week.

"Yes, sah—Ize gwine up dar at least fo' times," was the reply.

"Boy, are you up to snuff?" whispered the stranger.

"Well, sah, I knows a trick or two."

"Good—I thought you did. Now then, I want ten cents to get a drink, and I'll tell you how you can make your way through any of the gates without the least trouble."

"Wouldn't I be cotched?"

"Not a bit of it. I'll warrant you to go through without a word, and I only want ten cents for telling you how. I wouldn't give it away to anybody but a sharp, keen man like you."

"Well, I'll take dat in," said the negro as he handed over a dime. "Now, den, how kin I pass de gates?"

The white man put his mouth close to the other's ear and replied:

"Pay 'em fifty cents!"

It would have been a pretty even fight, but an officer came along and squelched it in the blossom.

Father and Son.

Brooklyn Eagle

The unusual scene of a father over eighty years of age complaining against a son on the dark side of fifty, was witnessed yesterday in Justice Fisher's court. Denis Hickey lives at No. 11 Grand avenue, and he told the court that his life was in danger, owing to the brutal manner in which he was treated by his son.

"My boy says I'm living too long," said Denis, "and he's wild because he can't lay his fingers on the property."

The son denied assaulting the father, and the examination was adjourned un til to-morrow.

New York Democrats and Republicans console themselves themselves with the reflection that there is no game law against crow this year.

GASTON WHISKY.

FIFTY-FIVE AUTHORIZED DISTILLERIES IN ONE COUNTY.

Baptist Association---Doctor Pritchard and His College---Revivals of Religion in Dallas, etc.

Correspondence of the News.

DALLAS, N. C., September 23.—It is stated that there are fifty-five authorized distilleries in the small county of Gaston, and that the price of corn has gone up to ninety cents per bushel. Between sixty and seventy revenue officials are in the county, and yet one of the most respectable gentlemen in the county, and a former representative in the legislature, informed the writer that there was more whisky made and sold illegally at these authorized distilleries than by all the moonshiners of any county of the State. It would seem that whisky is a bad thing any way you can fix it, and that it is dangerous to the morals of those who make, sell or drink it. But notwithstanding the fact that the whisky business is just now the chief source of revenue to the county, the pretty little village of Dallas is protected by the vote of two-thirds of its people against the sale of intoxicating drink—a rather singular circumstance it would seem, and yet greatly to the credit of the citizens.

The Tenth Fork Baptist Association held its first session at Hickory church in Gaston last week. This body is composed of about a dozen churches, located in Lincoln, Catawba and Gaston, and was presided over by Major William A. Graham, the popular Senator of Lincoln and Catawba. He makes a good presiding officer, and is a most active and useful lay member of his church. The prominent ministers present were the Rev. H. Harvey, a gifted and humorous preacher from Virginia, and is laboring in this State in the interest of the Biblical Recorder, Dr. Pritchard, Rev. G. Ghilkia, Rev. J. H. Burthie, Rev. J. R. Jones, Rev. J. B Marsh, Rev. A. L. Stugh and Rev. D. W. Henderson. On Saturday Dr. Pritchard and Mr. Hatslin discussed the subject of education in its relations to the State and the church, and the people seemed to be greatly interested. Doctor Pritchard seems to be in fine spirits about Wake Forest College, and stated there were then one hundred and thirty students, and that he expected to report one hundred and fifty by next June.

Dallas has been much blessed with religious privileges recently, the Methodist having had a good revival, at which some forty persons made a profession of religion, and the Baptists now have a meeting in progress of much interest, in which Dr. Pritchard is doing the preaching, though the Rev. J. F. Boothe, a former citizen of Wake, is the pastor.

The finest water power I have seen in all the State is in the south fork of the Catawba in this county. Quite a number of factories are already in operation, and there are excellent sites for fifty more; and if the good people of the county will quit making whisky and devote their energies to manufacturing interests this will soon become one of the most prosperous sections of the State. But, alas! whisky is the chief business of the people at the present writing. It takes the cotton crop of North Carolina to pay its whisky bill, and the amount foots up the snug little sum of eight millions of dollars.

A WELL OF REFINED OIL.

Phenomena in the Ohio Oil Region---A Fountain of Ice-Water.

A Meadville, Pa., corresponeent, writing on the 17th instant, says: "Some months ago a party of oil operators from Titusville and St. Petersburg began operations in the newly-discovered oil regions of Trumbull county, Ohio! They have struck a vein of petroleum of a character heretofore unknown in the oil business. It is a lubricating oil of the finest quality, and it comes from the earth refined and ready for use on the finest machinery. This well is flowing five barrels of this oil a day, for which the operators have a ready sale at $16 per barrel. Ordinary oil, in the Pennsylvania regions, is now selling at 63 cents a barrel. The tract in which this phenomenal well is located is near West Mecca. Two thousand acres have been leased at enormous prices by other speculators. The discoverers of this refined lubricating oil are putting down other wells on their land.

"Among the sand rock taken from Tew & Thurston's new oil well near State Line, at a depth of over 1,600 feet, was a piece thickly studded with seashell and bearing the impressions of curious fishes.

"Four miles from Clintonville, Venango county, a well was sunk three months ago to the depth of nine hundred feet. No oil, but a heavy vein of gas was found. The owner of the well attempted to remove the casing. It was raised a foot. The fresh water at the top of the hole rushed into the space at the bottom. It was caught by the great rush of gas and thrown one hundred feet into the air. This natural fountain has been gushing at the rate of two thousand barrels of ice-cold water a day ever since, with no indication that it will ever cease."

There was a great excitement in front of a fruit commission house on South Water street a little after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, A party of dealers overhauling and investigating a large lot of peaches which had just arrived in the market, discovered one basket with the fruit just as good at the bottom as the top, The error was soon rectified and quiet restored.—Chicago Journal.

Civil Damages Wanted for a Murder.

CHICAGO, September 24.—A novel suit was begun yesterday. The widow of Hugh McConville, the man murdered by Sherry and Conley, for which the latter were hanged, began a suit for $10.000 damages under the State law, against the owner of the saloon where Sherry and Conley procured the liquor which made them intoxicated, against the owner of the building, and against the agent who leased the premises.

HARNETT.

HARRINGTON, September 24.—Cool and cloudy, with rain on Sunday. This rain will help late crops, and potatoes and turnips. Farmers are hauling cotton to market pretty strong for the past week.

Thomas Douglas was married to Miss Cornelia F. McNeill.

Some thieves broke open the store of Ab. Kelly, five miles east of Jonesboro, and robbed of over $100 worth of goods. No clew to the thieves.

Harnett voted about one to seven against levying a special tax.

Two new post offices established in Harnett, Variety Grove, D. C. McLean, postmaster, and Westville, Jacob West, postmaster. Both are on the route from Manchester to Lillington.

Too soon in the season yet for balls in the country. Wait until near Christmas, then the countryman is ready to shake the light fantastic.

ASHEVILLE, Sept. 22.—Weather cloudy, threatening rain.

The outlook for trade the coming week, is less brilliant than usual. Many of the merchants having gone north for new supplies.

Court convenes in Haywood county this week, Judge Graves presiding, nearly all the lawyers from this place are in attendance.

The principal part of the politics of this section of the world, is I think, General Clingman, for the political horizon seems to be high or low, in proportion as the General seems inclined or not, every one feeling an interest in such affairs, consulting him.

Social events in Asheville are not near so numerous as they have been during the summer, most of the visitors having gone of whom there has been among us the past season more than ever before. Without any disparagement to the ladies of the village it is quite depressing to the young men of the place to see the fair creatures that have given us so much pleasure returning to their homes in Raleigh, Columbia, Augusta and other places.

The Asheville Female College which I reported some time ago as ready to open, has opened under very flattering circumstances. The president Rev. James Atkins is bouyant with hope. The buildings are being refitted in various ways, the grounds renovated, and this once prosperous school now dawns on the appearance of more prosperous days. CORRESPONDENT.

A BRUTAL POLICEMAN.

A SANGUINARY STRUGGLE IN RECTOR STREET NEW YORK.

An Inoffensive Citizen Clubbed to Helplessness—One of Those Outrages too Often Tolerated.

New York Sun.

William McCrory, saloon Keeper in the First Ward, after being for two weeks under the hands of three physicians, is slowly recovering. He was clubbed on the 6th instant by policeman Timothy Jourdan. In his home at 145 Washington street yesterday McCrory sat with the top, sides, and back of his head covered with long strips of court plaster and cotton batting. He was still very weak, and spoke in a dazed, feeble way. His story is as follows:

"On Saturday night, September sixth, about ten minutes to twelve, I was coming up Rector street. I had been drinking a little, but was not disorderly. Even Jourdan admits that. H. G. Campbell, a 'longshoreman, was with me. I sat down to rest at the corner of Rector and Greenwich streets, and Policeman 'Tim' Jourdan of the Twenty-seventh Precinct, a man that I never had a word with in my life, came along. He told me to get up out of that, adding that he'd smash me—— quick if I didn't. I asked him 'why should I go?' when he hit me a smash with the club on the left arm. Then he seized me by the shoulders and jerked me to my feet, at the same time hitting me a frightful blow over the head. Although Campbell had not made any attempt to interfere, Jourdan rapped on the pavement for assistance.

Several officers ran up, and he told them to take Campbell away, leaving me entirely at his mercy. Then he dragged me into Rector and New Church streets, and struck me a horrible blow on the top of the head with his heavy night club, cutting my scalp open and letting the blood out over my face. The doctors told me it was a mercy I had a thick skull. If it had been thin he'd have smashed it like an egg shell. He hit me just as if he were knocking in the head of an ox. I fell to the ground, and he smashed me over the head again and again. He must have struck me half a dozen times; my scalp was cut open and the blood ran in four different places. Patrolman Steve McDermot and Roundsman Murat came up and told him he had given me enough. McDermot said: 'You don't want to kill him, do you?' The three men had to carry me into the station house by the head and heels. I was just like a dead man. When I came to I was so crazy with the wounds that I wouldn't let the hospital surgeon come near to dress them. In the morning when I awoke you'd have thought the cell was a slaughter house. The blood was all over it. They took me before Justice Otterburg, and Jourdan falsely charged me with trying to bite his thumb. I made him hold it up in court and you couldn't see a scratch on it. But Jourdan brought up the fact that I'd been arrested twice before (although I was never tried or convicted of anything), and Judge Otterbourg fined me $10, sentenced me to ten days' imprisonment, and put me under $300 bond to keep the peace. The falsehood of the policeman's charge that I was resisting him is shown by the blotter at the station, where the only thing put against me was 'drunk and disorderly.' If I'd made the least attempt at resistance he'd have only been too glad to enter it. The biting of his thumb was an after thought."

McCrory's wounds were dressed twice by Dr. Wilkins of the Park Hospital, and again by Dr. Walker of Lexington avenue and Dr. DeHorsey of Greenwich and Liberty streets. Dr. Wilkins gave him a medical certificate and told him that he ought to go into a hospital. McCrory was too poor to hire a bartender to take his place, and so had a bed fitted up for him back of his place, where he was nursed by a negro and an aged woman.

Policeman Jourdan was found at 202 Madison street yesterday. His weight is over two hundred pounds. He said: "I spoke to McCrory civilly and tried to get him home. He answered by applying to me a vile epithet. I dragged him to his feet, tearing his shirt, as he says, and took him off toward the station house. In Rector street, near New Church, he put his head down and got my thumb in his mouth. Then I gave him the stick. I smashed him over the head and he let go and caught at my arm with his teeth, trying to bite through the cloth, and at the same time he attempted to kick me, but did not hurt me. I let him have the stick again, smashing him over the head twice. He let go, and I gave him a couple more on the head. He bled a good deal and made a big racket, but he brought it on himself. If he'd gone along peaceably he wouldn't have been punished at all."

One of the old charges that the police have called up against McCrory is that he defended his property against a creditor with an unloaded pistol. The other charges are trivial, and not one was ever tried. McCrory says he will enter a complaint against Jourdan in the Police Central office and also begin a civil suit against him.

He Might Ask.

Senator Grover, of Oregon, is a dignified and stately individual, whose every movement seems to indicate "I am a United States Senator." Some time ago he was en route to the camp of the Nez Perces. Pacing up and down a railway platform, the senatorial mind desired enlightenment, or, as the philosopher puts it, "more light, more light," and he thus addressed, with great dignity, a shock-headed boy:

"My son, may I ask you how far it is to the camp of the Nez Perces?"

"Yes, sir," promptly answered the boy, and then came to a full stop.

"How far is it?" asked the Senator.

"Well, durned if I know," replied the boy, with great gravity.

Killing Two Birds With One Stone.

How he Convinced Them.

Dallas Herald.

Ex-Gov. J. W. Throckmorton certainly understands all the arts of an old Texan. In his speech defending Ed. Bomar, at Gainesville, after having spoken about an hour he said:

"Gentlemen of the jury it is said by the prosecution that because the deceased was in his shirt sleeves when killed, he had no pistol."

Here Mr. Throckmorton pulled off his coat and stood before the jury in his shirt sleeves.

"You would say," continued Mr. Throckmorton, "that I am not armed because I am in my shirt sleeves. Look! do you see my arms?" cried he, holding up his hands.

No signs of arms could be seen.

Mr. Throckmorton then drew a pistol from under his left arm, another from under his right, one from each boot and a huge bowie-knife from the back of his neck, placing them npon the table.

"You see, gentleman, though in my shirt-sleeves I could be well armed."

This was a clincher and it carried the point, entirely destroying the argument of the prosecution.

General Grant's Tour Around the World.

General Grant left the United States on a tour around the world on May 17th, 1877, by the steamship Indiana, from Philadelphia for liverpool, being escorted down the Delaware by officers of the city and national government. He arrived at Liverpool on May 28th—the hospitalities of the city being extended to him by the mayor. At Manchester he received the like courtesy, and on his arrival in London was tendered receptions, at which members of the royal family were present. Military and political clubs made him an honorary member, and the honorary degree of D. C. L. was conferred upon him by Oxford university. The freedom of the city of London was next presented to him, after which banquets, fetes and balls followed, culminating in a dinner given to him by the Queen at Windsor Castle. General Grant then started on a continental tour, visiting Brussels, Cologne, Frankfort and Geneva, after that making short trips in Denmark, Norway and Sweden, and again returning to London. In Scotland he was presented with the freedom of five cities and two boroughs, and then made a round of the English provincial towns, leaving for France on the 24th of October. Banquets were given to him by President MacMahon, the American residents in Paris, and M. Emile de Girardin. Visits were next made to Gibraltar, Algiers, Constantinople, Athens, Naples, and points in southern Europe. On January 1st, 1878, he sailed from Malta for Egypt and the Nile, visiting the Khedive at Cairo; then traveling to Constantinople and from thence to Athens, where he and Mrs. Grant were formally presented to the king and queen of Greece.

A visit was next made to Rome, where the General, his wife, and son Jesse, were presented to the Pope by Cardinal McCloskey. After a trip through Italy, Paris was once more visited, next Holland, Germany, Scandinavia, and then Russia. At St. Petersburg the General had an audience with the Emperor Alexander. The rest of the year was spent in a tour of Austria, Spain and Portugal, and a third visit to Paris. The long-deferred trip to Ireland followed, but, although the ex-President was enthusiastically greeted at Duplin, Belfast and other points, the reception as a whole was not cordial, and the visit was made as brief as possible. A fare-well visit was paid to Paris, and a grand dinner was given at the Palace d'Elysee by President MacMahon. On the 23d of January, 1879, General Grant and party embarked at Marseilles for India. Everywhere throughout that country the ex-President was received with the most distinguished attention and consideration. Siam was next visited, the King bestowing many honors upon the General, China was the next point of travel, a feature of the visit being the presentation of an address relative to the subject of Chinese emigration to the United States. On arriving in Japan, on the 3d of July, Grant proceeded direct to Tokio, having an audience with he emperor on the following day. A series of magnificent entertainments was given in his honor and he was burdened with unexpected questions in regard to eastern policy, both sides of the Loochoo controversy having been laid before him by Prince Kung, of China, and the Japanese authorities. On the 3d of September, after a stay in Japan of two months, General Grant sailed from Yokohama, on the steamer City of Tokio, for San Francisco.

Donations to The North Carolina Agricultural Society.

The following are donations to the North Carolina Agricultural Society for the 19th Annual State Fair, to be held at Raleigh, October 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th next, acknowledged by C. B. Denson, secretary, in behalf of the Executive Committee:

One fiine Piano Box Buggy Body, given by F. T. Clymer, manufacturer, Wilmington, Delaware. The reputation of Mr. Clymer is such that we are satisfied that this very valuable donation will give the highest satisfaction. It is built in the finest and latest style in the market. We will take pleasure in noticing this handsome specimen of work after its arrival.

Fifty boxes (Paper), for the use of Milliners and business men generally, given by the manufacturer J. B. Whitaker, Jr., Esq., of Durham, N. C. This is a novel species of industry among us in North Carolina. The firm supply as good boxes and at as reasonable a rate as can be purchased from the Northern manufacturers. These boxes are now much used for packing tobacco, on account of the saving in freight.

One selection Pharmaceutical Preparations, in varieties given by Purcell, Ladd & Co., the well-known druggists of Richmond, Va. These are not Patent Medicines the formula being open to the inspection of any respectable druggist or physician. They consist of cod-liver oil and hypophosphates, iodide, sarsaparella and other articles. The attention of physicians and druggists is invited to them.

One selection Cow and Calf Weaners, given by H. C. Rice, Easthampton, Mass. Mr. Rice invites a test of his usetul instruments.

One selection Veterenary Cosmoline, given by E. F. Houghton & Co., 211, S. Front Street, Philadelphia, Pa. These gentlemen received a medal from the international exhibition at Philadelphia, for the absolute purity, great utility, in pharmacy, and cheapness of their Cosmoline. It is intended for the various ills and hurts of horses, cattle, etc. They have also a Cosmoline for medical use, samples of the former will be distributed to farmers and others.

In this way, at the Fair, new and useful articles are being brought to the attention of the people.

Bothered to Keep His Balance.

Philadelphia Times.

General Buttler is a pretty big man in some respects, but we would suppose it would bother him some to keep his balance on all the platforms that are being crowded under him this year.

Phew!

The Washington Post is responsible for this:

"A deaf and dumb girl in Arkansas talks in her sleep. When awake she returns to her normal condition."

Worthless Stuff

Not so fast my friend; if you could see the strong, healthy, blooming men, women and children that have been raised from beds of sickness, suffering and almost death, by the use of Hop Bitters, you would say "Glorious and invaluable remedy." See another column.

GRANT.

WHAT HE SAYS AND WHAT HE IS DOING.

What Was Done Wednesday—nething About His Daughter Nellie—Will Visit Philadelphia.

Washington Post.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept., 24.—This morning General Grant visited the Produce exchange, which was handsomely decorated. The general public was not admitted. He was warmly welcomed by the president, after which he was introduced to the members. He made a brief speech in reply to the address by the president of the exchange. The former residents of Galena were received by him at the Palace hotel this morning, the General having a pleasant word for each. After leaving the Produce exchange the General was driven to General McDowell's residence, at Black Point, where he is being entertained with a company of 1,000 persons, filling the house and beautiful grounds.

An erroneous impression may have been created by mentioning that champagne and cigars were handed around at the California theatre. Although as great a smoker as before, General Grant has not drank wine for several months. He tends to total abstinence, and it agrees with him splendidly. Great desire has been manifested that General Grant should visit the public schools here and witness the educational progress of this State. Whether he will have time to do so is yet uncertain. The first intimation General Grant had of Mrs. Sartoris' reported death was a telegram at Yokohama, as follows: "Rumors of Nellie's death untrue." He was naturally much shocked, and anxiously awaited the particulars, which he received from a pilot boat abreast of Farrallone.

At the reception of General McDowell General Grant was presented with a handsome banner by the Japanese consul, and with several valuable silk patterns by the Chinese consul in behalf of the Chinese merchants. The Japanese congratulated the general on being instrumental in breaking down the barriers against free commercial intercourse between the nations, and alluded to the reception of Mrs. Grant by the Emperor and Empress as supplementing his efforts. A lady having thus made an innovation on the rule excluding females from such affairs, and the first lady to have such a distinction accorded her.

The following are General Grant's words spoken to the ex-Confederates: "Gentlemen: It has afforded me great satisfaction and pleasure to observe the very cordial reception I have received here, and especially the welcome coming from the gentlemen you represent. If you had traveled aronnd the world as I have for several years past, you would appreciate, like me, the value of our common country more completely than any man who stays at home. You would be everywhere gratified to see that we are recognized by all nations of the earth in a higher light than our own people imagine. Our resources are considered unlimited, and when one gets to see the nations of the earth and considers, he begins to appreciate the inestimable value of our broad acres and the great energy of our people that are forever up-building in States and city and town. It affords me great satisfaction and pleasure to receive gentlemen who were long ago opposed to us, and I hope if this country ever sees another war we shall all be together under one flag fighting a common enemy."

General Grant has been compelled to decline an invitation to visit the Monterey county fair. The cities of San Jose, Sacramento, Stockton and Portland are preparing to extend fine receptions. After leaving the Produce exchange today the general took a trip around the bay on a Government vessel, in company with Gen. McPherson, Gen. McDowell and other army officers inspecting the fortifications. The reception at Gen. McDowell's residence, at Black Point, began at 3 and continued until after 6. Many army and navy officers, civil officers, leading citizens and ladies were presented. It was a very pleasant affair. This evening the general attended Baldwin's threatre. There was a brilliant audience present, and he met with an enthusiastic welcome. To-morrow morning the general goes over to Oakland, accompanied by Governor Irwin, Mayor Bryant, the board of supervisors and others,

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24.—Mayor Stokley, in response to a congratulatory dispatch sent to ex-President, U. S. Grant yesterday morning, received today the following telegram:

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23, 1879.—Wm. S. Stockly, Mayor of Philadelphia:—Thanks for your kind dispatch and for the good wishes you express in the name of Philadelphia. I cannot now name a time for visiting Philadelphia, but will let you know.

(Signed) U. S. GRANT.

The Tuckers.

As the reporter was passing up Fayetteville street yesterday, his attention was attracted to the immense pile of boxes standing in front of this mammoth establishment. Noticing the unusual stir and bustle within he was prompted to enter, and there found the eighteen clerks on duty that day, head over heels in business; unpacking goods and attending to the then store full of anxious customers. This is indeed a business firm and one would think that he was purchasing at a New York Metropolitan store while in Tuckers', such is the activity, business-like appearance and low prices at which goods are sold here.

Major Tucker took the reporter down stairs and there he found one room filled with carpeting, another with shoes etc. This firm is carrying the largest stock of dry goods, boots, shoes, hats, notions etc., etc., this season that they have ever before brought to this place, and that is saying a great deal, for everyone has heard of this house and its large and successful business.

Meeting of the Executive Committee of the N. C. Agricultural Society.

The Executive Committee of the N. C. Agricultural Society held their usual meeting at the Yarborough House last night, R. H. Battle, Jr., in the chair, and C. B. Denson, Secretary.

The Secretary presented a large number of letters, from various firms making donations for the Fair. Among these were fertilizers, clothing, medicines, agricultural implements, linen thread, mustard, horticultural tools, tobacco, cotton, wine, and a variety of useful and valuable articles.

The report of the Committee on Numerations of Employees was received and adopted.

On motion, Messrs. Broughton, Kingsly and Plumadore were appointed a committee on the part of the citizens of Raleigh to aid the Executive Committee in arranging for the procession of Trades through the city and to the Fair Grounds on Wednesday of Fair Week.

Encouraging reports were presented of prospects of the Fair, and after settling some matters of detail the meeting adjourned.

DAILY NEWS

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER - 26, 1879

MR. HAYES' circular has become a side show since the Grant menagerie was started.

JOHN SHERMAN doesn't particularly fancy the Colorado Republicans since they have endorsed Grant for a third term.

GRANT has the floor just now; but wait a few weeks. The Bobbers' wing of the Republican party has a boom in pickle.

JOHN KELLY'S body-guard is dispersing. In a few weeks there will be nothing left of John but a memory and a stench.

BEN. BUTLER has not yet been sufficiently nominated in Massachusetts. He ought to call a Woman Suffrage Convention, and give himself another nomination.

GRANT has been away nearly ever since Hayes was inaugurated, but he has kept informed as to the signs of the times. He will open his campaign for the Presidency to-day, in the latest approved style. by attending the Sante Clara Valley Agricultural Fair.

CANDIDATE Butler is doing some of his campaigning at the county fairs. He is at Erie this week, and will go up into the picturesque country of the Kiskiminetas and mingle with the farmers at the Indiana fair next week. Mr. Butler is enough of a farmer to know that the county fair has influence

THE only prospect of the continued existence of Tammany Hall as a dangerous element in the politics of that State is now found in the moral and material aid it receives from the Republican party. But the people were never more strongly disposed than now to sit down resolutely upon such an alliance as that of Conkling and Kelly.

THE result of the Maine election is still in doubt. The opposition vote increases as the count comes in. The majority against Davis will be much larger than was previously reported, and the Senate is uncertain, with the chances in favor of the opposition. There has not been a word of brag from Mr. Blaine in a week or more.

WHO knows but that Blaine and Sherman are Astley's backers in offering that belt to the pedestrians at New York City? It looks rather suspicious, and is an unfortunate thing for Grant, that just as his boom had fairly started in San Francisco the pedestrian match should so soon follow and drown it into insignificance.

IN Maryland the Democrats are felicitating themselves that they can offer about the only united and harmonious Democratic party in the United States. The strong point about Maryland is that it has no candidates for President. One or two small candidates for the Presidency can generally break up a big party without much ceremony.

NEW YORK promises to become a more Chinese city than San Francisco, for whereas the Mongolian population of the metropolis of the Pacific slope has been on the decrease for a number of years past, the Celestials in New York have increased tenfold since the last census. There are now, it is calculated, 2750 Chinese in New York city, 250 in Brooklyn and 200 in Jersey City, a total of 3200. They are all in good condition, engaged for the most part in the laundry, grocery, tobacco, drug and restaurant business.

THE Atlanta Constitution denies the statement recently made by Alexander H. Stephens that there are not ten Tilden men in the Georgia Legislature. It has made a canvass, not to find Tilden men, but to find those who are opposed to Tilden, and the result showed "that if there is no enthusiasm for Tilden, there was no earnest opposition to him, provided, as a matter of course, that he was found to be the most available man when the National Democratic Convention meets." The paper is very certain that whoever the candidate may be, he will receive the solid electoral vote of the Southern States, although there may be some who would arouse more enthusiasm than others.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Colorado has fired the first gun in the Grant "boom."

Tilden is not a very large man physically, but Kelly thinks he is seven feet high and weighs a ton.

Republican papers generall concede that Long has a hard road to travel before he can get to the governorship of Massachusetts.

The New York Nation advises independent Republicans to scratch the names of Cornell and Soule. This will be done in a great many instances.

The Perry county (Pa.) Democrat says that nineteen-twentieths of the Democrats of that county earnestly favor the renomination of Samuel J. Tilden for President.

It must have been distressing to Schurz, after his cordial reception by the Colorado Republicans, to find that they were third-termists of the most stalwart kind. Schurz don't feel comfortable in third-term company.

The Colorado Republicans are a very humble set. They say they will be rejoiced to give Grant their support if he should "conclude" to be a candidate for re-election. The abasing declaration herein contained, that the Grant crowd owns the Republican party will be resented by many honest Republicans.

Very Considerate.

The Philadelphia Times says:

"The President, in throwing in a puff or two for Secretary Sherman occasionally in his speeches, is unconsciously helping along the Sherman boom. It seems to need a little encouragement just now."

A Slow But Sure Increase.

Washington Post.

In 1680 Massachusetts bought what is now the State of Maine for $6,250. Blaine hasn't been able to buy it this year for $100,000. This shows a slow but sure increase of values, even in New England.

It Has Collapsed.

From the Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Foster boom was hollow, and its collapse was sudden.

BAY STATE POLITICS.

A Leader of the Regular Democracy on the Mixed-Up Situation.

Washington Post.

"Will the Democratic masses passively submit to the programme laid out for them by Tarbox's convention, Judge Abbott?" asked the reporter.

"I don't believe, sir," said the judge, "for a moment that the Democrats of Massachusetts are prepared, in anything like the numbers who last year gave General Butler their votes, to sanction what took place at Worcester last Wednesday. Why, for the first time in the history of the Democratic party that I ever heard of, a convention, pretending to be Democratic, stood with bated breath before a lot of dissatistied Republicans, and were absolutely afraid to raise a single voice in favor of Democratic principles and Democratic measures, and declared to the world that they deprecated saying anything upon the great principles and measures of their party, upon which the country is being divided at the present time. Whether we have been in the majority or in the minority heretofore, the Democrats of Massachusetts have always had the courage to say anything they believed, but at Worcester on Wednesday not a word was said about the cardinal Democratic contentions, because it was feared it would take some votes from the Republican end of the coalition."

On the question of the National delegates Judge Abbott said: "I have not altered my opinion in the least upon that subject, and haven't the slightest doubt in the world that the only delegates recognized at the National convention will be those who are chosen by representatives of the Democratic party in Massachusetts, and not by a party that is convened simply for the purpose of putting one Republican ring in place of another."

"It is claimed by General Butler's managers that a considerable number of votes cast last year for the Faneuil Hall ticket will this year go over to General Butler. Do you believe they will?"

"I believe, on the contrary," Mr. Abbott replied, "that all who voted for the Faneuil Hall ticket last year will vote for it again this year, and a great many more. I believe that a very large number of Democrats who voted for General Butler last year will not vote for him this year, for the reason, as I have said, that they do not propose to be made the mere tools and instruments in the hands of the seceding Republican clique."

"What is your opinion as to the probable result of the vote in November?"

"The whole question brings itself substantially to this: How large a following can these dissatisfied Republicans carry out with them from the Republican party? So far as I can see the whole question for the people between the Independents are dissatisfied Republicans, and the regular Republicans will be, whether they shall put one ring of Republicans headed by General Butler, Mr. Simmons, Mr. Usher, Mr. Baker and the rest, in place of the ring that has governed the party for several years past. I think General Butler will lose say twenty-five thousand Democratic votes that were last year cast for him. I think the Republican candidate will lose say twenty-five thousand Democratic votes that were last year cast for him, and the whole question then remaining is what strength the dissatisfied Republicans have? On this question I think it is too early in the campaign yet to form an opinion."

The Champion Preacher.

New York Sun.

Talmage embarked home last Sunday, and, winds and weather favoring the Bothnia, we shall have him again next week. He comes not a minute too soon, for the Tabernacle elders and trustees are quarrelling over their debts and expenses, and some of the members are dropping away.

It is gratifying to hear that he started in "excellent health and spirits," for he will need both to restore the damage caused by his absence. A church which is bound up in the reputation of a Talmage is in a bad way without him.

But what an amount of spouting he has done during his sojourn in Great Britain! Inside of three months he has preached end lectured ninety-six times—more than a sermon or a lecture a day. Yet his health and spirits are high when all the task is over. He steps aboard the steamer to cross the Atlantic in better feather than ever.

What do the preachers who are groaning over two thirty-minute sermons a week think of that? But Talmage must resist the temptation to repeat his feat here.

Whatever the staid old Presbyterians may think of him, whatever common fame may say of him, and however presbyteries may labor with him, Talmage means to hold the belt as the champion preacher, and will let no man and no assembly of men silence his voice.

He Wanted the Queen.

Philadelphia Ledger.

It is an unlucky sign for a King of Abyssinia to write a letter to the Queen of England. It was a missive of that kind, written by the late King Theodore, that led to the Abyssinian war a few years ago. His African Majesty proposed to marry the Queen. His letter to that effect was, by some mischance, filed away in a pigeon-hole in one of the British circumlocution offices, and never thought of until the black King began to maltreat the English missioneries within his boundaries, by way of showing his sense of blighted affections. He kept this up until the English government sent an army there to thrash him, which it did. But the war and its costs were heavy penalties for pigeon-holing a letter from Africa. The present letter from King John is on a less embarrassing subject, for it only complains of the Egyptians, and, as the English are doing the same thing on their own account, this letter can get a prompt response, expressing a fellow-feeling, and therefore, be wondrous kind. But it will not do to file it in a pigeon-hole, or a waste-paper basket.

Never Better.

Unquestionably, in purity and healthfulness, Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder takes the lead of all others in the United States. Messrs. Steele & Price, the, manufacturers, believe that all articles used in food should be strictly pure and wholesome.

Is be a Turtle?

Weston's score is not gratifying. He may be the plodding American turtle that is destined to pass the English hare, Rowell, but at present it doesn't look as if Rowell were that sort of a hare.

Not the Word he Wanted.

Rochester Express.

The editor who quashed a juicy cockroach with the butt end of his lead pencil and afterwards forgetfully sucked the same while wooing a coy expression, suddenly found a word, but it proved to be foreign to the subject under consideration.

Garfield Has Hung Up.

Washington Post.

It is noticeable that since Mr. Sherman has taken charge of the crops Mr. Garfield has hung up that long-suffering and much enduring scythe.

Executed by Electricity.

New Orleans Picaune.

Some German writers have long discussed the evil influences of public executions; which possess the fascination of a sensational show to the ignorant masses, and demoralize with the brutality of the method of death. The garrote and the gullotine, and many other improvements, have received due consideration, but the sentimentalists have at last concluded that a solemn killing by electricity is the proper thing. The present plan merely expiates one murder by making the executioner do another, but the electricity can be made to do the thing conscientiously and "officially." The walls of the room shall be draped in black, and the windows sumberly curtained, in order to exclude all light. The only articles of furniture in the apartment shall be the Judge's desk and an arm-chair. In the middle of the room shall be an iron figure of Justice, with her scales and sword. This effigy shall have, in place of bowels, as powerful an electric battery as may be necessary. The battery shall be connected with the arm-chair and governed by a mechanism in connection with the scales. The scene shall be lighted by a single torch burning on the Judge's desk. The only persons admitted to the execution shall be the judge, jury, and other officials concerned in the condemnation of the victim. That person shall be brought in and seated in the chair, to which he shall be manacled immovably. Then the Judge shall read the story of his crime to him and reiterate his sentence. This performed he shall break a rod of office and toss it into justice's balance. The scales shall be weighed down by this, and the electrical currant thus set in circulation. As the balance descends the judge shall extinguish the torch, signifying that he thus puts out the victim's life. Thus the criminal will expire in dreadful darkness without a chance of the sort of sympathy which so often adorns the scaffold. It will be as solemn and awful as the doom of impalement that the church inflicted on recusant nuns.

The opera was "Faust," and as he and his adored gazed upon the apotheosis as the angels carried Marquetta into heaven, he muttered, "Beautiful! beautiful! Here the soul clothed in all its purity is wafted to eternity to sweet strains of angelic music." "Yes, Gus," she replied, dreamily, "but I think if that grappling was to give way and dump her on the stage, it would kind of churn her up some."—St. Louis Spirit.

VEGETINE

For Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fever,

Or what is more commonly termed FEVER AND AGUE, with pain in the loins and through the back, and indescribable chilly sensation down the spine, an irresistible disposition to yawn pain in the eyes, which is increased by moving them, a blue tinge in the skin, and great listlessness and debility, Vegetine is a safe and positive remedy. It is compounded exclusively from the juices of carefully selected barks and herbs, and so strongly concentrates that it is one of the greatest cleansers of the blood that is or can be put together. Vegetine does not stop with breaking Chills and Fever, but it extends its wonderful influence into every part of the human system, and entirely eradicates every taint of disease. Vegetine does not act as a powerful cathartic, or debilitate the bowels and cause the patient to dread other serious complaints which must inevitably follow; but it strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood, restores the liver and kidneys to healthy action, regulates the bowels, and assists Nature in performing all the duties that devolve upon her.

Thousands of invalids are suffering today from the effects of powerful purgative nostrums, frightful quantities of quinine, and poison doses of arsenic, neither of which ever have, or ever could, reach the true cause of heir tcomplaint.

Vegetine

works in the human system in perfect harmony with nature's laws, and while it is pleasant to the taste, genial to the stomach, and mild in its influence on the bowels, it is absolute in its action on disease, and is not a vile, nauseous Bitters, purging the invalid into false hope that they are being cured. Vegetine is a purely Vegetable Medicine, compounded upon scientific principles. It is indorsed by the best physicians where its virtues have been tested, is recommended only where medicine is needed, and is not a mixture of cheap whiskey sold under the cloak of Bitters.

GIVES HEALTH, STRENGTH, AND APPETITE.

My daughter has received great benefit from the use of Vegetine. Her declining health was a source of great anxiety to all of her friends. A few bottles of the Vegetine restored her health, strength, and appetite. N. H. TILDEN,

Vegetine.

POLICE TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, Nov. 18, 1875.

Dear Sir,—During the past five years I have had ample opportunity to judge of the merits of Vegetine. My wife has used it for complaints attending a lady of delicate health, with more beneficial results than anything else which she ever tried. I have given it to my children under almost every circumstance attending a large family, and always with marked benefit. I have taken it myself with such great benefit that I cannot find words to express my unqualified appreciation of its goodness.

While performing my duties as a Police Officer in this city, it has been my lot to fall in with a great deal of sickness. I unhesitatingly recommend Vegetine, and I never knew of a case where it did not prove all that was claimed for it. Particularly in cases of debilitated or impoverished state of the blood, its effects are really wonderful; and, for all complaints arising from an impure state of the blood, it appears to work like a charm; and I do not believe there are any circumstances under which Vegetine can be used with injurious results; and it will always afford me pleasure to give any further information as to what I know about Vegetine.

Beautifiers.

Cuticura

REMEDIES

Have speedily and permanently cured Humors of the Skin and Scalp of Children and Infants afflicted since birth.

The treatment prescribed in such cases is mild doses of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, a perfectly safe yet powerful blood purifier, and the external use of CUTICURA, the great skin cure. The CUTICURA SOAP should be the only soap applied to the diseased skin for cleansing purposes.

Humor on a Child

Since Birth Cured, after faithful Medical Treatment had failed.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—My little son, two years of age, has had a humor on one side of his face since he was born, which during the last four months has spread over the entire side of the face, the child ear, and side of the head. It must have itched and irritated him a great deal, as he scratched the surface all the time, no matter what was applied. I used many remedies by advice of friends and my physician without benefit until I found CUTICURA, which immediately allayed the itching and inflammation, and entirely cured him. Respectfully, JOHN L. SURRY.

With Walworth Manufacturing Co.

BOSTON, April 15, 1878.

NOTE. Once cured, the skin may be rendered soft and fair by using the Cuticura Soap exclusively for toilet or nursery purposes.

CHILDREN AND INFANTS.

More Cures of Skin and Scalp Affections by the Cuticura Remedies.

Fred. Rohrer, Esq., Cashier Stock Growers' National Bank, Pueblo, Colo ado, writes: "I am so well pleased with its effects on my baby, that I cannot afford to be without it in my house. It is a wonderful cure, and is bound to become very popular as soon as its virtues are known to the masses."

J. S. Weeks, Esq., Town Treasurer, St. Albans, Vt., says in a letter dated May 28: "It works to a charm on my baby's face and head. Cured the head entirely, and has nearly cleaned the face of sores. I have recommend it to several, and Dr. Plant has ordered it for them."

M. M. Chick, Esq., 41 Franklin St., Boston, says: "My little daughter, eighteen months old, has what the doctors call Eczema. We have tried 'most everything, and at last have used CUTICURA, and she is almost a new child, and we feel very happy."

Prickly Heat.

Incidental to the Texan Climate.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Enclosed please find one dollar for a large box of CUTICURA. The small one that I received some time ago has been very efficacious, especially in Prickly Heat or Rash, as some people call it. I am noising it about. Yours truly, THOMAS W. BUCKLEY.

MASON, Texas, Sept. 22, 1878.

CUTICURA is a most valuable external application. It heals all cuts, bruises, and abrasions of the skin, restores the hair when destroyed by scalp diseases, removes dandruff and keeps the scalp clean and the hair soft and pliable. It is as agreeable as it is effective, and is ably assisted, in every case by the CUTICURA SOAP, which is particularly recommended to mothers for cleansing the skin and scalp of infants and children. It is Toilet as well as Medicinal, and is the most fragrant and refreshing Soap for the nursery and bath of any these prepared.

Parents have our assurance that these remedies contain nothing injurious to the youngest infant, evidence of which may be found in the certificates of Dr. Hayes and Prof. Merrick accompanying each remedy.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and are for sale by all Druggists. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes $1. Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes, 75 cents.

For the South Atlantic States partly cloudy and easterly winds; stationary temperature; stationary or lower barometer.

Index to New Advertisements.

TUCKER HALL—Pinafore.
PAYNE BROS—Brick.
ALFRED WILLIAMS—Local notice.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——"Didst ever feel, my love said he—
The 'twain 'neath starbeams strolling—
"A thrill no tongue can e'er express,
And yet 'tis vain controlling,
A something that o'erwhelms the soul
And quite o'ercomes the senses,
A ceaseless throb that through each vein
Its influences dispenses?
Can't tell me what it is, my own?"
Then fondly looked he at her;
"In course, you goose," she tartly said,
"It's corns, that's what's the matter?"

——More tramps.

——Two more "Jonah's" come to grief.

—About 350 bales received yesterday.

——Cotton continues to come in at a lively rate.

——Another marriage license issued yesterday.

——Fifty children in the Juvenile Pinafore troupe.

——Yesterday's revenue receipts amounted to $7222.20.

——The "Jonahs" are below par just now, but the winter approacheth.

——Pinafore by the juveniles Tuesday night—and don't you forget it.

——Mr. J. M. Dorrance of this city is registered at the Atlantic hotel in Norfolk.

——Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Hardie have returned from the north with a big stock of millinery.

——Mr. W. B. Hutchings was busy yesterday arranging the goods in his new store on Martin street.

——Miss Emma Lawrance of Goochland county, Va., is in the city on a visit to relatives here.

——Another move in the right direction—a pavement is being laid in front of the Fentress store on Fayetteville street.

——The water at Mr. Askews paper mills, on the Neuse, has been so low for the last week that he has been compelled to suspend operations.

——Mr. Alexander Creech, one of veteran dry goods merchants, has returned from the northern markets where he has been to purchase his large stock of fall goods.

——Professor Burwell announces in another column that the Peace Institute Cooking School has opened. This is a new and important feature in female seminaries. Young ladies can now bake biscuits with impunity.

——The Rev. Father Wright arrived on the 12:25 train yesterday, and there will be mass held at the Catholic Church, (Briggs Hall) at 7 o'clock until next Tuesday morning. On Sunday next there will be high mass at 11 o'clock a. m.

——Little Earnest Lee, the seven year old son of Captain J. W. Lee, died yesterday. He was a bright, intelligent little fellow and his untimely taking off is regretted by all. His funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

——Mr. Leo D. Heartt, who has been quite sick for several days, is reported as not having improved very greatly. Mr. Heartt is one of our most popular and respected citizens and the expressions of regret at his illness, and the sincere wishes for his speedy recovery is unanimous.

——Mr. Wetherell yesterday received his outfit as agent for the Travellers life and accident insurance company, and is now prepared to issue policies to the insurable world. This company issues the ordinary life; endowment fund and accident policies and Mr. W. will doubtless receive a good patronage.

The Musical Times.

This is the name of a weekly magazine published in New York by the Trade Review Publishing Co., 23, Union Square. It is brimful of choice reading matter and contains everything of interest relating to the musical and theatrical world.

Still Another.

Polk county turned in her abstract of taxes yesterday through Mr. W. M. Justice, the clerk of the board of commissioners. Here tt is:

General taxes,	$ 613 00
Special taxes,	613 00
School taxes,	950 47
County taxes,	2,310 11
Total,	$4,476 58

Cotton Books.

Messrs Alfred Williams & Co., have just received a new lot of Blank Books, including a good supply of manilla paper Cotton Books for keeping account of sales, weights and calculations. Our new Grocers Pass Book is the nicest thing in the market. Its use will save trouble and also constantly advertise the business of the dealer.

Death of Captain Thornburg.

The NEWS is pained to chronicle the death of this most estimable gentleman, which occurred at his home in Company Shops, on the 24th instant. Captain Thornburg has been the faithful and trusted secretary and treasurer of the North Carolina Railroad for a number of years, and that corporation, by his death, loses a most efficient and true officer, and the community at large a valuable citizen. He was admired and respected by all who knew him. Peace to his ashes.

The State Fair--A New Feature.

Captain Denson, the Secretary of the Fair, announces as a leading feature of the State Fair, October 13th to the 18th next, a procession of the trades. He says: "We desire to represent, on wagons suitably prepared, all the trades, including the blacksmith working at his forge and anvil; the carpenter building a small house, the printer with his case and press, the tobacco manufacturer packing tobacco or manufacturing plug, the merchant exhibiting his goods, etc., the wagons to be conspicuously labeled with name and business." This feature has been successfully carried out at other fairs and will no doubt prove a success here.

The Youthful Pinafores.

As announced in yesterday's issue, Ford's Juvenile Pinafore Opera Company appear at Tucker Hall next Tuesday night. Judging from the complimentary notices they have recived from the press wherever they have performed, it is concluded that the people here who attend this play will witness a performance altogether worthy of their patronage. The Richmond Dispatch, usually very critical in their notices of such things, says:

"The children have won many friends here, and will doubtless be most cordially welcomed should they visit Richmond again. It is a splendid company of children, who have good voices, and have been well trained,"

Justice Barbee's Court.

Jim Jeffreys was tried before this justice yesterday for an assault with a deadly weapon. He was adjudged guilty and a $50 bond demanded for his appearance at the next term of the Superior court. Jim didn't have any monied friends around and he was committed to the tender mercies of Jailor Bryan.

Richard Strickland and Minta Cooper were up on a charge of fornication and adultery. After a hearing they were dismissed.

G. A. Marcom, was next trotted out, upon a charge of having assaulted a party with a deadly weapon. At his own request his case was postponed, but when the justice handed him a bond to be filled out in the sum of $50 for his appearance at that time, his security was non est inventus, and so he peacefully reclineth upon one of the county jail bunks. J. B. Forsythe was a witness in this case and become very obstroperous, attempting to comb the justices' head with a chair. This little byplay on his part was the cause of his being remanded to the custody of the sheriff who deposited him in jail for contempt of court. Justice B. says he is one of those whales that won't be swallowed by "Jonah's."

Obituary.

At South Lowell, Orange county, N. C., on Saturday the 20th inst. at 3 o'clock, A. M. the life of little Eunice, infant daughter of Mrs. M. L. and Dr. J. G. Cannady went out.

Reach forth thy hand gently
Press on the cold brow,
The rosebud though nurtur'd,
Has gone from thee now.

Its petals are withered
Ere they burst to the sun,
And the pedicle sunken,
Ere its strength had begun.

And soar on the leaflets,
In the first gleam of dawn;
And the chill shapes of even,
Supplant the bright morn.

Tears will not reclaim it,
But this germ of thy love,
Will burgeon and blossom,
In the gardens above. R.

Impression.

It is generally supposed by physicians and the people generally that Dyspepsia can not invariably be cured, but we are pleased to say that Green's August Flower has never, to our knowledge, failed to cure Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint in all its forms, such as Sour Stomach, Costiveness, Sick Headache, palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, &c. Out of the 50,000 dozen bottles sold last year, not a single failure was reported, but thousands of complimentary letters received from druggists of wonderful cures. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sample bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by all druggists. *

Give Them a Trial.

Any lady or gentleman who will give Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes a single trial, will be convinced that for exquisite sweetness and permanency of odor, no perfumes in this or any other country can compare with them.

"John, what's that in your pocket, my son." "Mother, it's a package of Blackwell's Fragrant Durham Smoking Tobacco. We boys have just found out that it makes the best, sweetest and mildest cigarette in the world. The girls all smoke with us now. Won't you have one, Mother?"

It is asserted that the ordinary cosmetics used by ladies are productive of great mischief. We believe this is so, and that a better means of securing a beautiful complexion is to use some blood medicine like Rosadalis, the great Southern Remedy, which cleanses the blood and gives permanent beauty to the skin.

Our Family Bread.

Truly, the most important adulterations to avoid are those which are calculated to injure the "staff of life." Merchants who supply their customers with pure articles like Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, retain better patrons, have a larger trade, and make more money than those who recommend cheap adulterated powders.

The ladies of Raleigh say the Mile-End cotton sold by Yeargan, Petty & Jores is the best for sewing machines, as it is free from knots and does not kink. *

Gun and Locksmiths

Brockwell & King, near the rear of the U. S. Court House, on Salisbury street, are prepared to repair in first-class style, Breech-loading and Muzzle-loading Shot Guns and fire arms of every description. They also repair Door Locks, Trunk Locks, and locks of all patterns, Umbrellas, Parasols, Fluting machines, and everything in the line of small hardware, either brass, steel or iron. Sign and Bell hanging a specialty. Orders from a distance will receive special attention. Keys fitted at residences on short notice. All work warranted *

Weather Probabilities.

Cold, with high winds and rain. Exposure to this weather is sure to produce colds and kindred diseases; and the best remedy we know of is Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. Always keep it in the house, and you will be on the safe side. *

A Card.

All who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a receipt that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

Why Will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Cough, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's famous German prescription, ane is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand rnd without a single report of a failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.

Prejudice.

The prejudice of many in favor of the old methods of treatment is vanishing before the accumulated evidence in favor of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. Sept. 15 79.
